God's Unfailing Promises

In life, we often encounter both endings and beginnings. The conclusion of a year serves not just as an end, but as a poignant moment for spiritual introspection for anyone who has put their faith in God for their eternal destiny.

This time of year invites us to reflect on the experiences that have shaped us. Some of those experiences were joyful and some were challenging. As we look back, we may find ourselves holding on to treasured memories alongside moments of hardship that have left their mark on our hearts. We celebrate the instances of happiness, blessings, victories, and accomplishments that have filled our days. At the same time, we acknowledge the shadows of grief, loss, disappointment, and setbacks that have tested our resilience.

Yet, with the closing of one chapter comes the dawn of new possibilities for spiritual growth in 2026. Let us turn the pages of the past year and embrace the promise of a fresh start, one that is infused with biblical promises that echo throughout eternity. May this new beginning inspire us to embrace God's unfailing promises and forge ahead with hope and courage, carrying the lessons learned into a strengthened personal relationship with God.

I encourage you to remember the unfailing promises of God throughout 2026. The Bible reveals to us in Psalm 103:2 "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's."

What are some of His benefits?

He Will Forgive All of Your Sins. Psalm

103:12 "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us."

Complete Healing and Comfort. Revelation 21:4 "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." There will be no more death, mourning, crying, or pain in heaven.

Redemption from Destruction. Ephesians 1:7 "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;" As a child of God, you are rescued from sin, spiritual death and eternal ruin.

Lovingkindness and Tender Mercies. Psalm 145:9 “The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.” God’s amazing love is unending and steadfast. His mercy is gentle, personal and protective.

Satisfaction and Renewal. Jeremiah 31:25 “For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.” God will meet your needs and restore your weary soul.

He Will Steadfastly Carry You and Sustain You. Isaiah 46:4 “Even to your old age I am He, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.”

As you journey through 2026 remember these unfailing promises of God. You will find strength, hope and a truthful reason to grasp God's consistent love, even during difficulties. Almighty God is always good, and He is always merciful. We can step into the new year knowing that God's unfailing promises are for you personally.

New Life, New Growth, New Freedom

Over the past season, God has been quietly and powerfully expanding the work of CMF. As we look ahead, we are grateful to share how the Lord is breathing new life into our ministry through several important initiatives, each rooted in leading people to Christ, strengthening their faith, and equipping them to help others do the same.

At the heart of CMF’s mission is the desire to see men and women not only come to know Jesus, but to grow deep roots in Him. Through expanded discipling efforts across the military community, CMF is walking more intentionally alongside service members, veterans, and their families—helping believers become spiritually strong, grounded in Scripture, and unshakeable in their faith as they carry Christ with them to every new duty station and season of life.

We are especially thankful for the renewed vision and momentum within Christian Military Wives. This community exists to encourage military wives to grow in their walk with Christ, support one another through the challenges of military life, and learn how to live out—and share—the hope of the gospel on the home front. Through prayer, fellowship, and discipleship, women are being strengthened and empowered to influence their families and communities for Christ.

CMF is also expanding compassionate care for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one in military service. We are developing bereavement support through our peer leaders to provide a sacred space where hurting hearts can encounter the comfort of Christ, be strengthened in faith, and experience enduring community. Even in seasons of loss, God is at work—healing hearts and using faithful presence to draw others to Himself.

In response to a growing need, CMF is launching a confidential, Christ-centered ministry to help individuals break free from pornography addiction. This new pathway offers accountability, Biblical truth, and grace-filled support—leading people into freedom, restored relationships, and renewed hearts. As lives are transformed, many discover a new calling to walk alongside others seeking the same freedom in Christ.

As CMF expands these discipling and healing ministries, the need for faithful leaders and supporters is growing as well. We are prayerfully seeking veterans and other believers who feel called to serve alongside us—walking with others, leading small groups, offering encouragement, and helping strengthen the local CMF leadership team.

Every Knee Shall Bow and Every Tongue Confess

The declaration that “every knee shall bow and every tongue confess” appears several times in scripture, the first being in the book of Isaiah:

*“I have sworn by Myself;
The word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness,
And shall not return,
That to Me every knee shall bow,
Every tongue shall take an oath.” (Isaiah 45:23)*

Perhaps the passage most familiar to most believers is from Paul’s letter to the Philippians:

“Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” (Philippians 2:9-11)

Paul repeated those same words in his letter to Christians in Rome:

For it is written: “As I live, says the Lord, Every knee shall bow to Me, And every tongue shall confess to God.”” (Rom 14:11)

We also see the Apostle John, when explaining his vision of the Scroll and the Lamb in Revelation, Chapter 5 proclaims:

“And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

‘Blessing and honor and glory and power Be to Him who sits on the throne, And to the Lamb, forever and ever!’” (Revelation 5:13)

The declaration that “at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth” really strikes deeply. Not only will every creature in the universe eventually bow to their creator and acknowledge His Son Jesus as Lord of the universe, I can see in my mind and in my heart the faces and names of living unsaved family members, friends, neighbors, former co-workers and comrades in arms. I also cannot help but imagine what it will be like for anyone “under the earth” at the moment they bow the knee and confess Jesus as Lord.

Those words should spur evangelism, as we are called to share the gospel so that others may willingly bow their knees to Christ in this life, rather than in judgment in the life to come.

So I must ask myself, “Self, how’s your burden today?”

Are You Called to Teach and Disciple?

Christian Military Fellowship exists to help you fulfill your calling in Christ to share the hope that is in you with those with whom you interact as part of your daily life.

Briefly, CMF Local Leaders will start, and sustain a CMF fellowship made up of members of the military community in their area. While CMF is an “all ranks” ministry, our area of focus is on enlisted personnel. Local leaders institute and lead the military community in Bible study, prayer, and fellowship, keeping in communication with participants. They should also seek to build relationships with the chaplains and the chaplain team.

Toward that end we encourage you to study and complete the CMF briefing material:

Orientation \(Brief #1\) that shares an overview of the CMF ministry.

Developing a Local Ministry \(Brief

#2\) that shares the Biblical foundation for and delineates the logical steps in beginning your local ministry.

Pray and Plan \(Brief #3\) that shares the most important activity of all! Asking Jesus what He would have you to do and then being obedient to follow His leading in your local ministry. If you choose to begin this process, please reach out to us at: office@cmfhq.org.

We’re praying for you!
